Enjoy Free Performances and Ice Cream Among the Trees on August 9 and 23

Seattle, WA— Spend a special evening—or two—at the Washington Park Arboretum this coming August! Experience music from beloved local musicians, enjoy a sweet treat, and relax among the trees. All ages welcome!

First up, on Wednesday, August 9 from 6 to 8 p.m., is the Jose Gonzales Trio, who like to put a fresh stamp on jazz standards by flirting with pop, funk, and R&B.

Then, on Wednesday, August 23, from 6 to 8 p.m., Gansango Music & Dance presents traditional and contemporary dance and music from West Africa.

Both performances will take place at the Graham Visitors Center in the Arboretum (2300 Arboretum Drive East, Seattle, WA 98112). Guests can enjoy free ice cream from Sweet Alchemy while supplies last.

This free community event is hosted by the Arboretum Foundation. If you have questions, contact us as info@arboretumfoundation.org or 206-325-4510. Full details: arboretumfoundation.org/events/music-in-the-arboretum
